6. Insertion of new sections after section 17.- In the principal Act, after section 17, the following sections shall be inserted, namely:-

“17A. Opportunity before imposing penalty.-Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, an officer equivalent to the rank of Coir Project Officer in the Industries/Coir Department may be designated by the Government, by notification in the Gazette, to impose penalty, who shall before taking steps for imposing penalty under section 17 of this Act, give an opportunity to the person concerned, to comply with the aforesaid relevant provisions by written direction laying down a time period not exceeding ninety days for such compliance and if the person complies with the direction within the said period, then, no such proceedings shall be initiated against him.

17B. Punishment for non-payment of penalty.- (1) Whoever fails to pay the penalty so imposed under section 17 of this Act, within a period of ninety days from the date of receipt of the copy of the order, shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months and with fine which may extend to double the amount imposed as penalty.

(2) No Court inferior to that of a Judicial Magistrate of the First Class shall try any offence punishable under this Act.

(3) No Court shall take cognizance of any offence punishable under this Act except on a report in writing of the facts constituting such offence made with previous sanction of the officer authorized to impose the fine.

17C. Power of Officers to impose penalty.- (1) For the purpose of imposing penalty under section 17 of this Act, an officer as designated by the Government under section 17A of this Act, shall impose the same as provided under this Act, after holding an enquiry in the manner as may be prescribed.

(2) While holding enquiry under sub-section (1), the officer shall have the power to summon and enforce attendance of any person acquainted with the facts and circumstances of the case to give evidence or to produce any document, which in the opinion of the officer, may be useful or relevant to the subject matter of the enquiry and if on such enquiry he is satisfied that the person has committed the offence, he shall impose such penalty as provided under this Act.

(3) Any person aggrieved by an order made by the officer under sub-section (2) may prefer an appeal in such form and in such manner with such fee, as may be prescribed, before the Appellate Authority within thirty days from the date on which such order is communicated to him :

Provided that the Appellate Authority may entertain the appeal after the expiry of the said period of thirty days, if such authority is satisfied that the appellant was prevented by sufficient cause from filing the appeal in time.

(4) The Appellate Authority may after giving the parties to the appeal an opportunity of being heard, pass such order as he thinks fit, confirming, modifying or setting aside the order appealed against within a period of sixty days from the date of receipt of the appeal.

(5) The amount of penalty received shall be credited to the Consolidated fund of the State.

17D. Compounding of Offences.- (1) The Offences provided under section 17B of this Act, may be compounded, either before or after institution of prosecution by an officer equivalent to the rank of Joint Director in the Industries/Coir Department, appointed by the Government by notification in the Gazette in this behalf, on an application made to such officer by the person alleged of the offence, on payment of seventy five percent of the maximum amount of fine provided under the said section.

(2) Every application for compounding the offences shall be made in such form and in such manner as may be prescribed.

(3) Where compounding of an offence is made before the institution of prosecution, no prosecution shall be instituted with respect to that offence against whom the offence is so compounded.

(4) Where the compounding of an offence is made after institution of the prosecution, such compounding shall be made with the permission of the court and after such compounding the accused shall be acquitted.

(5) The amount received on compounding of the offences shall be credited to the Consolidated Fund of the State.

17E. Mode of Recovery of money due from any person. - Any amount due from any person under this Act or rules or scheme made thereunder may be recovered with interest in the same manner as arrears of public revenue due on land as per the provisions of the Kerala Revenue Recovery Act, 1968 (15 of 1968), for the time being in force."

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

For the effective implementation of Ease of Doing Business, the Kerala Law Reforms Commission in its 19th Report have recommended amendments in the Kerala

Coir Workers' Welfare Fund Act, 1987 (34 of 1987), for imposing penalty instead of existing penal provisions for procedural violations, minor offences, fine etc., in the said Act, incorporating provisions for enhancement of penalty by taking into account of central labour laws and current money value, giving opportunity to persons concerned before imposing penalty, punishment for default in payment of penalty, designating an officer for imposing penalty and compounding of offences, compounding of offences on payment of seventy-five percent of the maximum amount of fine and recovery of arrears as per the provisions of the Kerala Revenue Recovery Act. The Government have considered the above said recommendations and decided to make suitable amendments in the said Act. In addition, the Government have also decided to amend section 14 of the said Act, in accordance with section 26E of the Securitisation and Reconstruction of Financial Assets and Enforcement of Security Interests Act, 2002 (Central Act 54 of 2002). For the above purposes, the Government have decided to make suitable amendments in the said Act.

The Bill is intended to achieve the above object.

FINANCIAL MEMORANDUM

The Bill, if enacted and brought into operation, would not involve any additional expenditure from the Consolidated Fund of the State.

MEMORANDUM REGARDING DELEGATED LEGISLATION

Clause 6 of the Bill, proposed to be inserted in the principal Act, seeks to empower the Government,-

(i) in section 17A, to designate an officer, equivalent to the rank of Coir Project Officer in the Industries/Coir Department, by notification in the Gazette, to impose penalty;

(ii) in section 17 C,-

(a) in sub-section (1), to prescribe the manner of holding an enquiry by the officer designated by the Government for imposing penalty ;

(b) in sub-section (3), to prescribe the form, manner and fee for filing an appeal before the appellate authority.

(iii) in section 17 D,-

(a) in sub-section (1), to designate an officer equivalent to the rank of Joint Director in the Industries/Coir Department by notification in the Gazette, as a Compounding Officer for compounding of offences provided under section 17B of this Act, either before or after the institution of prosecution;

(b) in sub-section (2), to prescribe the form and manner for compounding the offences.

The matters in respect of which rules may be made or notifications may be issued, are matters of procedure and are of routine or administrative in nature. Further, the rules, are subject to scrutiny by the Legislative Assembly. The delegation of legislative power is, thus, of a normal character.

P. RAJEEVE.
